MR FISH

SK Hello Mr Fine. How are you today?

FINE I'm pine and you.

SK I'm fine too. What would you like to buy? I have some lovely seafood this morning.

FINE Ohh, shi-pood! What have you got?

SK I have some nice fish, cod, and delicious mackerel.

FISH (suddenly Mr Fish walks in)

FINE I want some pish.

FISH Well, here I am Mr Pine. Good morning?

FINE Good morning Mr Pish have you come for a pish.

FISH Well Mr Pine you do look pine. Yes, I've come for a pish, I love a pish on a priday.

FINE Yes, pish is so tasty. I was going to have a presh pish but I think I might have a crap instead.

FISH What sort of crap do you like?

FINE I love big, fat brown ones, espesharry with big craws. A big crap boiled is best, better than a robster. Mmm, delicious. I like my pood presh. What sort of pish do you like Mr Pish?

FISH I love a long one. Long ones are more tasty. The longer the pish the better. Mmm, tasty.
(MR FISH TURNS TO S)

Can I have a long pish please?

FINE And I want a big crap, a big brown crap that will fill my pot.

SK Ooo! Sorry gentlemen. You can't pish here and you can't crap! That's disgusting. If you want a pish or a crap go to the toilet!

FISH Pardon, I don't understand. I only want a pish please.

FINE And I just want a crap, a big brown one.

SK You're disgusting, nasty people. Go away!

FISH But, I don't understand. This is a sshi-pood shop.

FINE Yes, a pish shop is where you go for a crap.

SK Go away! You're very bad! Get out!

(Mr FISH and FINE walk down the road very confused why they could not buy fish or crab at a fish shop.)

FINE What a strange man Mr Pish. There are so many strange. Last night I asked my neighbour if she'd like to see penus out of my window.

FISH How big was it?

FINE Oooo it was the big. Very big. I've never seen it so ra-gee.

FISH Was it shinny, too?

FINE Of course, Penus is always ra-gee and shiny.

FISH Was she excited. I would have been.

FINE No, she wasn't excited at all. She was frightened.

FISH What did you say?

FINE I said hurry, hurry Mrs Dick, you can see Penus out of my window and it is really big and shiny.

FISH What happened next?

FINE Her husband came to the door and said 'puck off' and hit me in the pace with his pist.
